LIFE IN THE LAW.

Reminiscences of the Bench, Bar, and Circuit.

By JOHN GEORGE WITT, K.C.
(Bencher of Lincoln's Inn—Formerly Senior Fellow of King's College, Cambridge.)
With Portrait. Crown 8vo, 6s. net.

Mr. Witt's tragic death in a London omnibus recently is probably fresh in the memory of most people. He was a general favourite, and this very pleasant and readable volume of his reminiscences during the last forty years will be welcomed by many. The work is full of personal anecdotes of well-known legal luminaries. His boyhood at Eton College, his early life at the Bar, his connection with the Confederacy leaders (he was a great personal friend of Mr. Jefferson Davis) during the American Civil War, are graphically described. He also devotes chapters to "Sins of the Law," and gives many suggestive ideas for the improvement and simplification of legal procedure.

The Times says:—"Mr. Bridges is always shrewd, often instructive, and, though stoutly attached to his own opinions, never aggressively polemical. On the whole, the combination of qualities displayed by Mr. Bridges in this pleasant medley of reflections and recollections is at once piquant and rare."

COMPENDIUM OF SWEDENBORG'S THEOLOGICAL WRITINGS.

 Because Swedenborg has written so much, many who are strangers to his works are deterred from making their acquaintance from not knowing what to select and where to begin. This work contains the most important passages, arranged under heads, so as to present a complete and authoritative exposition of what he taught.

SECOND IMPRESSION.

Towards a Social Policy.

SUGGESTIONS FOR

CONSTRUCTIVE DOMESTIC REFORM.

By Various Writers.

Representing the conclusions of a Committee consisting of Messrs. C. R. BUXTON, H. C. FAIRFAX-CHOLMELEY, J. L. HAMMOND, F. W. HIRST, L. T. HOBHOUSE, J. A. HOBSON, C. F. G. MASTERMAN, M.P., J. H. MORGAN, and VAUGHAN NASH.

"We must all welcome, therefore, such a volume as the Speaker Office has produced under the title of 'Towards a Social Policy.' It is full of hard thinking and solid information and should be a mine for platform speakers."
—DAILY CHRONICLE.

"The book should be in the hand of everyone who loves his country. It is a lucid and comprehensive statement of the causes of the blight that is falling upon the race, and of the remedies to be applied."—DAILY NEWS.

"'Towards a Social Policy' decidedly 'gives us to think.' Its authors are doing the Liberal Party a notable service."—WESTMINSTER GAZETTE.

"They (the readers) will find within its hundred and twenty odd pages much keen diagnosis of existing evils, much outspoken criticism of the slipshod palliatives with which we have hitherto been content to attempt to meet them, and many bold suggestions—some very bold indeed—as to the direction in which the real remedies are to be found. They may not agree. They cannot fail to be interested."—MORNING LEADER.

A BIG MASSACRE WANTED!

"We want a big massacre! It is the price we shall have to pay. We shall provoke the Turk into such a massacre that Europe will — must — intervene. I know Europe is getting sick of the Macedonian muddle. But Europe has got to be stirred. The only thing to stir it to interfere and take Macedonia from Turkey will be a great massacre of Christians. That is the way by which Macedonia will get its liberation."

JOHN FOSTER FRASER, who recently made a special journey to the Balkans to find out the causes of the insurrections, and to study the life and habits of the people of that remarkable country. Mr. Fraser's new book
